

Archdiocese of Atlanta Media Release Form

St. Mary's Academy has active promotion and development programs. Students may appear in photographs, publications, films, interviews, web pages, social media, or videos made in conjunction with these and other school-sponsored activities. These productions, photographs, interviews, or the like may appear in school-produced material, local media, or national media.

Please check:

_____ I give my consent for my child(ren) to appear in any publication, film, interview, web page, social media, or video for St. Mary's Academy.

_____ I give my consent to the above but do not give my consent for my child(ren) to appear on the school's web page.

_____ I do not wish my child(ren) to appear in or be photographed in any St. Mary's Academy publication, film, interview, web page, social media, or videos. This may result in a class photo with your child and a separate one without your child so that the class photo can be used on the website, etc. This does not include the school's yearbook, school newspaper, or literary publication.

I hereby waive and release any claim against St. Mary's Academy and the Archdiocese of Atlanta from any responsibility or liability for any claim arising from the publication or reproduction of any photographs, images, films, interviews, web pages, social media, or videos.

This Media Release remains enforce throughout my child(ren)'s enrollment at St. Mary's Academy. It is revokable upon written request by executing a new Media Release Form with an updated effective date.
